CAN'T LOCATE SUBMARINE CREW NOW BELIEVED DEAD

Plymouth, Eng., Jan. 17.—Not a trace had been found up to late this afternoon of the British submarine which was lost in Whitsand Bay on the shores of Plymouth Sound yesterday afternoon.

No Hope Held Out Of Saving Men.

Plymouth, Eng., Jan 17.—While the admiralty held out no hope for the survival of the eleven men, a frantic search was resumed at daybreak today for the lost submarine A-7, disabled on the bottom of Whitsand Bay yesterday. Every available craft in the harbor was on duty and several heavy salvage tugs were on teh scene capable of raising the diver if found.

The A-7 was sunk during the night because of a floating buoy breaking away. From time to time divers were sent down without success and an almost complete dragging of the bottom with grappling hooks was equally unsuccessful.

There was a rough sea last night, high tides making it possible that the submarine had drifted far from her original position.

When the ruins were searched, the bodies of the dead were found in their beds. They had died from suffocation.

HUERTA SAYS HE CAN'T QUIT IF HE WANTS TO, MERCADO TO BE SHOT

(By U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Mexico City, Mexico, Jan. 17.—"President Wilson is all right, but he does not understand the Mexican Indians," General Huerta told Nelson O'Shaughnessy, secretary of the American embassy today, while attending the funeral of General Maas.

"I could not quit if I wanted to. What would happen if I should go out? It would be worse than ever."

Wearing a sweater and Janet cap, Huerta attending the military funeral of one of his generals Huerta beckoned O'Shaughnessy to his auto for a talk. Huerta took occasion to complain of the inefficiency and disloyalty of a number of his generals. He spoke of General Mercado in particular. Mercado fled to the American side after the surrender of Ojinaga. Huerta is also reported to have told Mr. O'Shaughnessy that he was not responsible for the death of Gen. Madero and Vice President Suarez. He said he did not have to offer proof of his innocence because he was not on trial.

Sentence of death was today passed on General Mercado by Minister of War Blanquet who ordered him to be shot as a traitor. Inasmuch as Mercado is in America, he is not expected to return to Mexico to be shot.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 17.—The remainder of Gen. Mercado's federal army, which fled across the border when the rebels captured Ojinaga today, set [illegible], Texas on its march to Marfa, Texas. [illegible] refugees accompanied it. Mothers with newly born babies rode in wagons. Young girls leading little tots straggled along wearied. Marfa will be reached Monday.

Berlin, Germany, Jan. 17. A German wireless telegraph company secured a concession for the erection of a wireless station in Mexico City to enable Provisional President Huerta to maintain communication with his columns of federal troops operating against the rebels in various parts of the country. Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—Placing credit on the mediation of the State Industrial Commission for the amicable settlement of the Portsmouth shoe workers' strike, Commissioner T. J. Duffy today declared he believed "the day of strikes and lockouts in Ohio with their attendant violence and misery is past."

Fred Croxton, agent of the commission, brought the workers and shoe manufacturers to terms, Duffy declared.

Croxton's achievement was the first of its kind under the new law permitting the Industrial Commission to mediate in labor troubles.

The commission announced today that it was also through the efforts of John Roan, "safety first" expert of the organization, that striking miners of the Bridgeport [illegible] mine of the Lorain Coal & Dock company resumed work today. Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—The first municipal civil service hearing by the State Civil Service commission will be held January 17, it was announced today, as the result of filing of formal charges against Mayor David Green and his civil service commission at Urbana.

Demands that the action of Mayor Green be sifted was made by 90 Urbana citizens who asked for Green's removal if any illegality is found. The petitioners say Green, in violation of the civil service law, removed the regularly elected civil service commissioners of Urbana without cause, for political reasons, and that he gave them no public hearing.

VOLCANO AGAIN BREAKS LOOSE AT KAGOSHIMA, CITY IS PANIC STRICKEN

Kagoshima, Japan, Jan. 17.—Two further eruptions of the volcano of Sakura-Jima accompanied by a severe earthquake caused the collapse of more buildings, causing a [illegible] of inhabitants of Kagoshima to flee for their lives.

Ashes are falling thickly today. The sun looked like a ball of blood over Kagoshima, but gave so little light that the darkness was such that night signals had to be employed on the railroads. The flying dust was so thick that the few pedestrians on the streets, making their way to the outskirts of the city, had to cover their mouths with towels and handkerchiefs to keep from suffocating. The sea in the gulf of Kagoshima seemed to be boiling and the quantity of pumice stones in it was so great that it prevented navigation.

Tokio, Japan, Jan. 17.—An indication that the loss of life on the Island of Sakura, which was devastated by the eruption of the volcano Sakura-Jima, may be so much larger than had been supposed is given in a report received here today from an official of the interior department who was sent to Kagoshima and its vicinity to investigate.

He reports that [illegible] out of Sakura's estimated population of 19,000 had been accounted for up to the evening of the 16th.

Bishop Walter Andrews of the English church in Hokkaido, the famine stricken district, writes that the suffering everywhere is intense. The army, he says, are hit the hardest and their families are eating soups made of chopped straw, leaves and rotten potatoes and meat taken from cats, dogs and fish. The more fortunate have a thin gruel made of rice or wheat.

Many girls, he declared, have been sold into slavery. He tells of many children fainting in schools sick from lack of food.

Members of a party rescued from a cave recounted how they saved themselves from being roasted alive by holding [illegible] on their heads. They were in a cave for three days and expected death every minute of the time. They had no food but found some drinking water.

Kagoshima, Japan, Jan. 17.—Blue Jackets from the Japanese fleet today discovered a native craft containing 16 refugees from Sakura who were in a starving condition. They reported that owing to the floating masses of pumice stones and the high seas they had been unable to [illegible] their boat and had spent three days adrift at the mercy of the elements and without a morsel of food. The Blue Jackets were able to reach them only by using a wedge [illegible].

Lava today was flowing steadily down the side of the mountain [illegible].

[illegible] telegrams are [illegible] awaiting [illegible].

Kagoshima, Japan, Jan. 17.—Prof. Omori, a Japanese seismologist, who arrived here yesterday, circled the island of Sakura today and found a pronounced physical change. Huge molten rocks formed a range into the sea practically blocking the bay of Osumi.

Many new hills have sprung into existence. About seven-tenths of the island is a desert of lava and the remaining land is in such a hopeless condition that it must be abandoned. Fifteen hundred of the 2000 houses on the island were buried. The estimated damage on this account is ten billion yen ($5,000,000). How to deal with the islanders is a great problem, the professor says, but evidently they must migrate.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Japan is undertaking to relieve the sufferers from earthquake and volcanic disaster through its own agents before looking for external aid. In answer to an offer from the American Red Cross the Japanese through Ambassador Guthrie cabled the following:

"The Japanese Red Cross through President Viscount Hanabusa, expresses its sincere appreciation at the kind sympathy and generous offer of the American Red Cross but as relief work at Kiushu is in the hands of a committee acting directly under the government it does not feel justified in intervening." The American Red Cross will continue the collection in this country which will be turned over to the governmental relief committee.

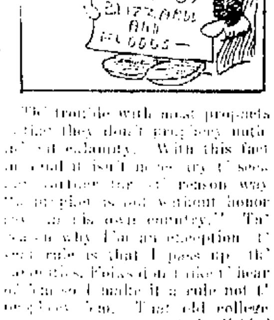

CAPITAL STOCK DECREASED

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—The Peruna company today decreased its capital stock from $500,000 to $100,000. Officials refused to discuss the decrease, saying it was a personal matter.

STATESMAN DEAD.

Ottawa, Ill., Jan. 17.—William Cullen, 87, former Illinois congressman and one of the organizers of the Republican party, died here today.

The trouble with most prophets is that they don't prophesy nothing but calamity. With this fact in mind it isn't necessary t' seek any further for th' reason why "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country." That's why I'm an exception. My rule is that I pass up th' calamities. Folks don't like t' hear of 'em so I make it a rule not t' prophesy 'em. Will Hold Institutes Every Two Months

That the teachers of Portsmouth and Scioto county are keenly alert to their opportunities to secure new and valuable ideas in their work was demonstrated by the fine attendance at the Scioto County Teachers' Institute at the high school building Saturday morning. There was an excellent representation from both the city and country schools, and they were treated to a most interesting and instructive program.

It was unanimously decided before the Institute adjourned to hold Institutes every two months in the school year in addition to the annual Institute and the next one will be held in the high school building two months hence.

Much interest was aroused in the reading exhibit in which pupils from schools all over the county participated. The showing of the readers from the various grades was most commendable, and proved convincingly that the study of reading is not being overlooked in the schools of Scioto county.

Little Miss Erma Brunner of this county, who has been attending public school just a little over four months, surprised all present by her aptness in reading first grade selections, as did also Harold Thompson, who has been attending school about nine months. They were the local representatives in the reading exhibit.

Clara Henning and Bessie Fleming of New Boston, represented the second grade; Clara Walton, of Sciotoville, the fourth; Emma Suter, of Wheelersburg, the fifth; Dorothy Davis, of Franklin Furnace the sixth and Edward Russell of Lucasville, the eighth. Marcella Stevens, of South Webster, who was to have been the third grade representative, could not be present, while the Harden schools, from which the reader for third grade work was chosen, was not represented.

Dean Chubb of Ohio university at Athens, delivered a most excellent address to the teachers, taking for his theme the advantages that fall to the lot of the educated man. He ridiculed the idea that because some men achieved greatness without educational advantages, this could be accepted as the general rule. They were rather the exception to the rule, the speaker declared. He made a strong plea for loyalty to the schools on the part of the teachers in his closing remarks.

Rev. E. G. Hamilton, pastor of the Grandview Avenue Christian church, had charge of the devotional exercises at the opening of Institute, which were followed by a number of songs selections by the pupils of the eighth grade of the Union street school, with Miss Harriet Searl, teacher of music in the Portsmouth schools, as conductor. Other numbers on the program which contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion were a vocal solo by Miss Isadora White and a [illegible] by Mrs. Lenora McNamara.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

TALKED SELF INTO TROUBLE

Willis Coleman, the colored man who wanted the court to arrange his sentence that he would be able to attend the great Panama Exposition, was brought into court Saturday morning. It seems that Coleman had been talking too much since going back to jail, and when brought in and was confronted with the question: Have you ever been in a state prison, he admitted that he had served three years in the Ohio Penitentiary, for using a knife on a man in Cincinnati. When asked Why he had not told it before? He said he was afraid it would cause him to get a heavier sentence now. As he was 31 years old, beyond the age limit for the Reformatory the court changed the sentence and sentenced him to a term in the Penitentiary. He will now have to give up the trip to the Pacific coast in the year of 1915.

Pastor Praises Within The Law

PASTOR RECOMMENDS PLAY

The following recommendation of Rev. W. H. Hampton of the great play, "Within The Law" which appears at the Masonic tonights speaks for itself:

"Have seen 'Within The Law'. Wish every man in the community could see it. Heartily recommend the play.

REV. W. H. HAMPTON."

Another company played "Within The Law" at Ironton last fall and the above card from Rev. Hampton appeared in the Ironton papers at that time. The company that comes here is guaranteed first class, every one having played in the New York production.

The Irontonian, the next morning said in part of "Within The Law:" "One of the largest audiences of the season greeted the appearance of 'Within The Law,' at the Masonic last night, standing room being at a premium and many people being turned away after the house was sold out.

It is needless to say that the large audience was delighted with the manner in which the play was staged. There was not a weak point in the entire cast.

The play itself contains much that is good and wholesome in a view of the conditions in modern big city life and it has gripping appeal and striking climaxes that explain its wonderful success among the creations of the modern school of drama.

The seat sale for the show which plays at the Grand Wednesday will open Monday morning at nine o'clock.

All Peggy's Tears Did Not Save Him

Unless he can pay a fine of $200 imposed on him in police court Saturday morning, "Peggy" Fred Davis will be compelled to work it out in the Cincinnati work house as the result of being convicted of bootlegging.

The mouth of Paradise alley seems to have been the bar of the North End. It was here that the lid was tilted on Sunday. The officials and liquor license commission have been trying to keep the lid sealed. Peggy, minus the white apron and license, lifted it. He dispensed to whomever he thought was his friends. Railroaders, it seems, were his chief patrons. A dry throat could always be washed on Sunday if Peggy could be found.

The regulation price was 75 cents for the pint, it seems. He took the money, disappeared and returned in full bloom with the liquor.

On the side, a social game of cards was conducted at the home of Amanda Davis, 1134 Twelfth street. Here Peggy is alleged to have spent the day Sunday, not at the home of his grandmother, 1128 Twelfth street. These homes border on Paradise alley. But Peggy got wind of the fact that the chief and his police were shadowing his actions. He wisely remained closed at home until dark. Then he ventured out.

Just one or two little pints of whiskey he sold to James Bohen, a railroader. Bohen came back for more but Peggy got suspicious and refused him. A row followed. Peggy was arrested and so was Bohen. But the cat was out of the bag. Bohen confessed to where he secured his whiskey and incidentally informed the police that he had been in the habit of securing his Sunday supply from Davis.

In police court Saturday morning with Attorney George W. Sheppard as his attorney, Davis attempted to prove an alibi. He introduced Marjorie Davis, a niece, Mrs. Watts a widow, William Green and Henry Slinny, friends, that he remained at the home of Amanda Davis from seven o'clock in the morning until about six o'clock in the evening, when he went to a restaurant near the N. & W. passenger depot. It was then, he claimed, that Bohen accosted him and attempted to compel him to furnish liquor, either by buying it or making it.

Peggy, so he claims, informed him that it was a new year and he had turned over a new leaf. A fight followed and that started Davis on the trip which landed him in the toils of the police and will likely have its finale in the Cincinnati workhouse.

All through his hearing Davis shed tears, briny tears, tears of remorse and the thought of the future. Any reference to an eighty-seven year old grandmother brought a fresh outburst. Spectators unaccustomed to the tears of a man the calibre of Davis gazed in wonder and amazement.

Not so with the liquor license commission and the court. They were relentless in their direct fire of questions. A battery of interrogations was opened up on the witnesses and the defendant and some of the inside workings of Paradise alley and the resorts that contribute to its notoriety were exposed. Some developments may have bearings on later movements of the police and the commission.

Appointed Guardian.

In the case of Henry Sherman against Clifford Sherman, a suit in partition in common pleas court, Joe T. Micklethwait was appointed as guardian ad litem of minor children.

File Civil Suit

A suit in foreclosure was filed in common pleas court Saturday morning by Attorneys Daehler and Moulton, on behalf of the River City Lumber company, and against Milton Bayless and Clarence A. Bayless. The plaintiff claims on account and on notes the sum of $1,525, with mortgage on certain city property.

Night Watchman.

John Bergen has taken a position as night watchman at the Patterson paper box factory.

High Class Vaudeville At New Sun Theatre

Beginning matinee Monday January 19th, the management will present high-class vaudeville to the patrons some of the bright lights on the vaudeville stage. The headline feature listed will be Beatrice May [illegible] Company presenting "The Conquering Hero," a comedy playlet in three scenes. It is a realistic comedy and will be presented by a brilliant cast.

Ackerman, the man with the "goods," a singing comedian and is well equipped with vocal attributes and is an accomplished artist besides. Frank Cetter comedy [illegible], and Hibarst and Crouch eccentric black-face comedians.

A grand reel of pictures will complete another all-star bill.

Six Converted At Mission Meeting

A half-dozen men asked for prayers at the close of an exceptionally interesting meeting last night at Wesley Hall Mission, 512 Second street. An illustrated lecture on the "Birth of Christ" by Rev. A. F. Hughes, pastor of Bigelow church, was the feature of the meeting. This was the first of a series of Friday night illustrated talks, and the series on the life of Christ will be continued next Friday night when "The Boyhood of Christ" will be the theme.

Rev. E. D. Evans of Ironton, who was in the city on business connected with the Social Service commission of the Methodist church for the Portsmouth district, was present and made an address. Rev. Hughes, who is also a member of the commission, will go to Ironton next week to further discuss matters pertaining to the committee's work.

Episcopals Plan For Innovation

The Social Service Commission of this diocese of the Episcopal church of which Rev. F. A. Powell of this city is a member, at a meeting in Cincinnati completed arrangements for the placing of a miner's chaplain in the Hocking Valley coal region.

Owing to the inaccessibility of a number of small towns there the residents there have been compelled in the past to forego the privilege of church attending and it was the object of this meeting Friday to better the church conditions in this particular section of the state.

A minister from Lynn, Mass., is to be appointed to the position and he will be provided with an automobile so he can go from one town to another without having to resort to the use of trains as the service there is not the best. It is a new departure in Episcopalianism and a step that should bear good fruit.

At the morning services at All Saints' church Sunday, Rev. Powell will make a report of the condition of the flood fund.

May Move Plant

According to a report published in the Chicago Engineering News, a trade journal, the plant of the South Webster Brick company may be moved to Ironton in the spring.

An attempt was made to verify the report Saturday, but telephone communication with South Webster was cut off owing to several wires being down. It is said that the news of the removal of the plant to Ironton has been confirmed in the latter city.

Old Time Revival At Baptist Church

Dr. T. H. McAfee will, on Sunday evening, begin a series of revival meetings at the First Baptist church. A good musical program has been prepared for each evening, and the pastor expects to make First church hum as it has in the past two or three years. The church band will play each evening, and the men's and the women's quartets will alternate in singing, the men starting the ball to rolling Sunday evening.

Dr. McAfee has returned from Martins Ferry where he went to look over the field in answer to what was virtually a call from that place. He also, on his way home, visited at Newark, where he was the guest of Dr. H. D. Rowland, who leaves next week for Utica, N. Y., where he has accepted a call. This leaves the Newark pastorate vacant, and Dr. McAfee was requested to look over the field.

No decision has been made by Dr. McAfee regarding these offers, but it is thought that his relations here will present matters in such a light that he will remain to finish the good work he has begun and has well under way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS ORGANIZED

At a meeting held in the Wesley Hall Missionary at 512 Second street last Sunday the Sunday school was organized with 115 present. The following officers were chosen:

Superintendent, Rev. J. E. Dibert; assistant supt., Pearl Daugherty; secretary, J. N. Vahobar; treasurer, Rev. J. E. Dibert; chorister, Miss Grace Jones; organist, Miss Jeannette Taylor; librarian, Fay Clevenger.

The teachers are: Mesdames Lila Johnson, J. E. Dibert, Pearl Daugherty and Messrs. W. A. Plummer, E. O. Ackley and [illegible]

Hereafter Sunday school will be held every Sunday at 2 p. m. and preaching services at 3 o'clock. Children who do not attend other Sunday schools are especially welcome to attend.

Dr. F. T. Perry, well-known [illegible] Chillicothe street, has purchased a new Buick automobile, which has been delivered by R. S. Prichard.

Dr. H. C. Rapp of the West Side was in the city Friday on business.

The Man Behind The Dollar

Is The Power That Has to Be Reckoned With in Almost Every Phase of Human Life!

The Security Bank is Willing and Anxious

To help make you, "The Man Behind the Dollar"—to give you means and power—to place you in a position to command strength—to be a man among men and to fill your station in life with credit to yourself and honor to your Creator.

TO MAKE A SUCCESS YOU MUST SECURE A START!

A banking account is the safest and surest way to reach the goal. Cultivate the weekly saving habit—don't trust to luck 'it' pluck that wins every time. Open up a savings account in a bank where "savings are safe." Lay aside a certain stipulated sum each week—let nothing interfere with that resolve and as time flies rapidly, you will soon have before you resources that will give you a front rank in the list of successful men.

Read the words of Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, "One thing certain, I will keep what I have and live within my salary here. I can do it with economy, I think, and the lesson will be good for the public. A little economy won't hurt the American people."

A wise man is the author of that strong statement. In his present exalted position, he has not forgotten that it is a duty that he owes to himself anl family to lay aside a little for a rainy day. Old age will overtake us all and it is simply within the power of most all to provide for its coming.

OPEN A SAVINGS ACCOUNT AT THE SECURITY BANK

Resolve right now that you will live within your means and that you will deposit a certain stipulated sum each week at this bank. Remember, interest is paid in March, July and November on deposits that have been placed in the bank for one month or longer. Compound interest helps to add greatly to your savings and is one of the surest ways to accumulate a fortune.

If you will call at the bank we will be pleased to explain our plan to help you more fully.

Lenses Must Be Changed

Shur-on EYE GLASSES. Stay in place—Grace the face

Lenses do not wear out, but eyes do. Every part of the body changes with advancing years and our eyes in common with the rest of our physical being show the effect of age. We must, therefore, meet the changed condition of the eyes. The glasses that you bought ten or even three years ago are not giving your eyes the proper assistance. As our eyes are wearing out year by year, your lenses should be made stronger or weaker to correspond with your failing vision. Pleased to have you call, and let us explain the advantages of Toric or curved lenses over the old style flat form. We can and do guarantee satisfaction, because we have the trained ability, equipment and facilities.

No charge for examination and glasses recommended only when necessary.

SAVING IS POWER

A greater number of persons than ever before is now making a determined effort to meet the greater demands on the pocket book by earning more and by saving more, so that stored up money at interest in the bank or elsewhere may help defray the constantly heavier expenses.

Two young men, one in receipt of wages of $12 a week and another of twice that amount, each eat in the same restaurant, wear clothing of practically identical appearance, and each of them is regularly "broke" at the end of the week. Evidently the actually necessary expenditures of the two cannot be very different, but the ratio to the wages each receives is vastly different.

If the one with the larger income does not save anything, the fault lies with him more than the high cost of living.

We pay you interest on savings and compound it.

Rev. J. E. McGuirk Will Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Sunday To Be Great Day

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Rev. J. E. McGuirk as pastor of Holy Redeemer church will be duly solemnized in his honor tomorrow in a most fitting manner by the devoted members of Holy Redeemer church with whom the pastor, choir and members of St. Mary's church of this city, will join in offering their hearty congratulations and fervent prayers for the future welfare of their sister parish and pastor.

Rt. Rev. James J. Hartley, D. D., classmate and intimate friend of the pastor, will grace the happy occasion with his presence.

Rev. Vincent G. Cleary, the eloquent Dominican Missionary, who endeared himself to all the parishoners during the recent mission will be present to deliver the sermon on the subject of "The Catholic Priesthood."

It is expected neighboring priests who can get away will lend themselves to do honor to their fellow priests.

The church will be beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar will glow with lights, flowers and potted plants. The papal and national colors will hold a prominent place in the decorating scheme. On Sunday morning Bishop Hartley will celebrate the eight o'clock mass. Several priests will assist the Bishop in giving Holy Communion which shall be offered up by hundreds of the parishoners in honor of their pastor.

At ten o'clock, solemn High Mass will be celebrated by the pastor in presence of the Rt. Rev. Bishop, assisted by Rev. Father Goebel, pastor of St. Mary's as deacon, and Rev. Father Carey, pastor of St. Peter's church, Wheelersburg, as subdeacon.

Holy Redeemer church choir, reinforced by the choir of St. Mary's church will render a fine musical program.

At 7:30 Sunday evening the exercises will consist of the sermon by the Dominican Missionary and the services of the day be brought to a close by solemn Benediction.

Rev. J. E. McGuirk, formerly pastor of St. Paul's church, Athens, Ohio, was appointed pastor of Holy Redeemer, January 15, 1889 by Rt. Rev. John A. Watterson now of beloved memory.

The pastor was duly received by a committee consisting of William Hughes, Wm. Prendergast, John Doherty and Richard Barry, the latter being the only surviving member of the reception committee.

The pastor took formal charge on Sunday following, it being the Feast of the Holy Name.

The first message of the pastor to [illegible] was [illegible] in the following words: "Break down the walls of prejudice, whether social or religious. Let the gospel and example of Christ unite all into one [illegible] of Christian Charity and [illegible]. Let each one according to the light given him and [illegible] prejudice strive for eternal [illegible] that all men may the better promote the glory of God, the [illegible] prosperity and happiness of Portsmouth."

[illegible] pastor found one cent in the [illegible] treasury, but found in the [illegible] of his people an inexhaustible [illegible] upon which during [illegible] five years, notwithstanding [illegible] and extraordinary drafts [illegible] made, but one cent during [illegible] years multiplied itself so [illegible] hundred and forty two [illegible] dollars have been generously contributed by the members [illegible] purpose of promoting [illegible] morality, Christian education [illegible] charity. As an everlasting monument of these good works, [illegible] place of divine worship in [illegible] stands "a thing of [illegible] forever."

[illegible] many improvements were [illegible] the parish and its old [illegible] debts were effaced the [illegible] resorted to a simple and [illegible] plan to raise money for the [illegible] building the new church. [illegible] of a penny a day for [illegible] woman and child struck [illegible] chord in the hearts of all [illegible]. The city was divided [illegible] lady collectors were assigned [illegible] collect in each district and [illegible] amount of collections to [illegible] on each Monday. This [illegible] deposited in the Building [illegible] association where it [illegible] and interest with [illegible] seven years, until it had [illegible] handsome sum of twelve [illegible] and fifty dollars, the cost [illegible] present site of the new [illegible] which also stands as a fitting [illegible] and reward for all the [illegible] labors and sacrifices made by these noble women for their glorious faith.

The following women of the parish cheerfully volunteered to become collectors of the insignificant penny:

Mary McMahon, Sarah McMahon, Bedelia Farrell, Mary Mantel, Mary Galtz, Elizabeth Se[illegible], Katie Cook, Nannie Conroy, Margaret Barry, Clara Nugent, Annie Conroy, Anna Wirt and Mary McQuaide.

All the collectors are living except Miss Bedelia Farrell who has been called to her eternal reward.

The parish school under the able directorship of the Sisters of St. Francis together with the moral and financial cooperation of the whole parish was [illegible] now a powerful auxiliary to Catholic faith and [illegible] knowledge to meet the duties of life.

For twenty-five years the relationship of pastor and people has been one of harmony, loyalty, cooperation and generosity. The pastor has [illegible] seven hundred and [illegible] infants and adults. About one hundred converts have been added to the church. Over five hundred and seventy-five have been married. Over [illegible] hundred have passed away.

During all these years the best of Christian [illegible] has prevailed among Catholic and non-Catholic [illegible] of all classes and creeds. [illegible] has the pastor [illegible] than the [illegible] Catholic and non-Catholic. Many non-Catholics of Portsmouth are enrolled among the long list of generous benefactors to the new church. The Parish and Diocese of Columbus have been enriched in property values over two hundred thousand dollars. Twenty five years ago the property was worth about twenty thousand dollars. The orphans collection taken up at Xmas twenty five years ago amounted to forty one dollars. This charity has now grown into the hundreds each year until the sum of $799.00 has been reached to date. The impetus given to this good work has increased the [illegible] of each parish throughout the Diocese until they now annually exceed ten thousand dollars.

PREVENTION BEATS CURE ARGUES ATTORNEY KLEIN

Editor of Daily Times,
Portsmouth, Ohio
Dear Sir:

The week I remained in the city of Portsmouth as counsel for the Shoe workers on strike, I had opportunity to observe the city conditions prevailing and desire, through your valuable paper, to make some few suggestions.

Of course it may be stated that a citizen of Cincinnati should attend to his own affairs but in answer to this, I would say, a casual student and observer can often make suggestions which the active citizen because of his daily contact with things which have become part of his life, does not observe.

Here is a program which I would recommend to the City of Portsmouth:

1. The alleys of Portsmouth are breeding places of Tuberculosis and other germs. It is useless to have a sewerage system, keeping the main streets clean, unless at the same time the much [illegible] is removed from the hidden places. By doing this there will be a better average of health and cleanliness at a very low price.

2. Make it the business of your Fire Department not so much to put out fires, but rather to prevent them. I notice that the vacant homes as well as many cellars and attics are filled with refuse and filth as well as old paper. Every such place is an invitation to fire. Even the [illegible] [illegible] basements, cellars, attics, [illegible] hallways and [illegible] the removal of refuse therein and thereby remove fires and all that goes with them.

3. Request Public Play Grounds with suitable apparatus in conjunction with each and every school. This will have a tendency to reduce the juvenile court work.

4. Plan a campaign for a new City Building and Court House so as to take the City of Portsmouth out of its village [illegible]. [illegible] is preferable. That is to say, create a fund with a boulevard or park system [illegible] which or upon which the administrative buildings, both city and county can be placed. This will mean a great saving for the [illegible] property [illegible] value.

5. [illegible] Board of Health [illegible] as well as the teeth and general health of children in the schools, which should [illegible] at least once a month.

6. [illegible] Portsmouth [illegible] the property of the people [illegible] should be [illegible] for [illegible] meetings, thereby [illegible] grade crossing is an invitation of death and the Legislature has given the cities ample power to deal with the matter. Railroad companies have to pay a great portion of the cost. Where grade crossings can not be abolished at once, automatic safety gates should be put.

The Charter Commission of 15 as provided by the Ohio Constitution, gives municipalities [illegible] rule.

Trusting this will be received in the spirit intended, I am with greetings to the people of Portsmouth.

Very truly yours,
NICHOLAS KLEIN.

Enterprise Smoker

Enterprise Lodge No. 23 Loyal Order of [illegible] of Friendship, a [illegible] organization, will [illegible] smoker, Friday evening after initiating these new members, [illegible], Joseph Crenshaw, [illegible] and Wm. Washington.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

While playing on the sidewalk in front of her home, Friday evening, Laura Lena Heinisch, a young daughter of Mrs. Ethel Heinisch, tripped and fell, breaking her arm. It is the second break that has occurred within three months, the same arm being afflicted.

Schmitt of Portsmouth but now located in Cincinnati as international president of the Boilermakers and Shipbuilders' Union of America, has gone to St. Louis to attend a meeting of the Federated Crafts of the Wabash Railroad. Schmitt received a telegram from the international office of the union summoning him to attend.

A peanut vending machine that has been posted in front of the Windle home, 915 Gallia street for months, disappeared Friday night and its departure is attributed to thieves. The police have been asked to locate the silent salesman.

Vertical Boards With Wide Siding—A John Henry Newson

Home of Character No. 149-B

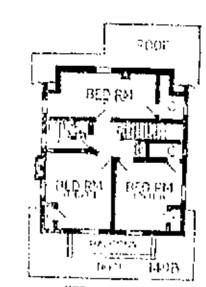

This house (24x24 feet) is of the same plan as No. 149 A, but has been slightly rearranged upon the second floor to give an opportunity for an entirely different but equally artistic exterior. Upon this exterior the second floor has been carried out in wide vertical boards with batten strips at the joints, while the first floor is again covered with the wide resawn lap siding. The color scheme is to have the entire body of the house below the vertical boards in white, while the vertical boards are stained brown and waxed and the roof is in gray shingles.

The first floor of this house is covered by description of No. 149 A, while the second floor is equally interesting and, if anything, arranged to better advantage than in 149 A. The closets are placed under the slope of the roof and the bath room is placed over the dining room. The arrangement is good and the slight excess in cost of plumbing by reason of the bath room being placed over the dining room is justified in the general scheme of the second floor. A vestibule can be added as shown on plan of No. 149 A if desired. The basement extends under the entire house and is reached by stairs from kitchen and outside cellarway.

The cost of this house should be about the same as 149 A from $2500 to $2500.

Inquiries of Times readers addressed to John Henry Newson, Homes of Character Department, The Times, will be given Mr. Newson's prompt attention. Always give the number of the home concerning which inquiry is made, and as the service is free the inclosure of a stamp for reply will be appreciated.

WOMEN CAUGHT ON TRESTLE HAD TERRIFYING EXPERIENCE

Friends in this city have received word of the narrow and unusually thrilling escape from instant death experienced by Mrs. Elsa Dean and sister of Peebles this week, when by sheer presence of mind, they saved themselves from the terrible fate of being ground to pieces by a fast N. & W. passenger train. Reports of the near accident have also been received by local officials of the company.

The two women were walking across the Peterson bridge and trestle about one mile west of Peebles when Train No. 25, the fast Cincinnati train, hove in sight. There is a sharp curve in the road just before the bridge is reached, and the view of the approach of the train was cut off until it was almost upon them.

One of the women was able to reach the abutment in time to avoid danger, but the other was too far away to get there before the train would have been upon here. She then made a frantic effort to slip between the ties, but the space between them was not wide enough to permit her body to pass through. With only a few seconds to spare, she laid prostrate on the guard rail, less than one foot from the steel rail over which the wheels of the train passed. She was unharmed.

The engineer noted her perilous position, and made a desperate attempt to stop the train, but the entire length of the train had passed her before he was able to bring it to a full stop. Members of the train crew rushed back to where she was lying, expecting to find her fatally injured, but were greatly relieved when they found out that she hadn't been injured in the slightest.

Outside of the terrible fright and shock which left them in a state bordering on nervous collapse, Mrs. Dean and her sister suffered no bad effects from the thrilling experience.

EVANGELIST SCORES THE TANGO DANCES

The tango, cradle flip, bunny hug and grape vine fling—in fact all forms of the dancing craze, were given a terrific arraignment by Evangelist W. T. Brooks at the First Christian church Thursday evening. The large church edifice was filled to the uttermost and the evangelist was right in his element, having practically recovered from his attack of the grip. He was in deadly earnest during his hour s address and he spared not the feelings or beliefs of any man. The Hoosier Evangelist lays on with a heavy hand when tackling a proposition that he believes is injuring the growth and developments of the church.

While taking a solar plexus wallop at the tango, the evangelist was just as caustic when it came time for him to upbraid the popular styles in dress, which he said emanated from the slums of Paris, and which were first adopted and approved by the women of the underworld. Between dancing and dress the women are kept so busy in many instances that they have precious little time to attend to their church duties.

[illegible] chapter of Paul's letter to [illegible] as the basis of his [illegible]. This chapter is one that [illegible] the place and [illegible] when it [illegible] to church work. It is one [illegible] taken literally [illegible] parts [illegible] [illegible] gold and silver [illegible] stones. However, [illegible] pleased the women [illegible] translation of this important chapter he opened many avenues of escape as it were and was not called "a horrid man" at the close of his splendid sermon. At that, however, he had precious little use for the woman who spends more time in front of her mirror than she does in reading her Bible, or who takes more pains in the rearing of a little pug dog than she does in caring for her children.

That his sermon went home was demonstrated at the close of his address when five persons stepped forward and made the good confession, bringing the total conversions to date at the mark of seventy-one.

In his sidelights Evangelist Brooks said in part:

"Sin is everywhere in the church and out of the church."

"Some people imagine they can belong to a secret order and find God. It will take more than a pass word to put you through the pearly gates ajar."

"If a man does not believe the Bible, there is precious little hope for him. The unpardonable sin is committed when a man rejects the Word of God."

"We ought to spend more time in spiritual adornment than we do in physical adornment."

"The American people are going to the extremes in styles. Dresses are now cut off at the bottom as well as the top and no one knows where this cutting process is going to stop."

"There never was a time in the history of the world when people indulged in so many vulgar dances. The tango step was danced 400 years ago by the most vicious people in the world."

"It is getting to be that modesty receives no shock in the opera houses of the world."

"Our mothers and wives and daughters should have some other standard of styles than those which originate from the slums of Paris."

"Happiness comes from within and not from without. Christianity [illegible]."

"I believe I could learn the tango step but I do not want to, and neither do you, if you are a Christian."

"You be careful about the thoughts that go through your mind."

"The old [illegible] of a man's actions [illegible] thoughts."

"As a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

"Every man [illegible]."

At the close of the meeting six candidates were baptized by [illegible] Frank Harbinson. Baptismal services will likely be held at the close of every service from now until the close of the revival which is one of the best ever held by the church.

An effort is being made to have a large crowd at Sunday school tomorrow. Superintendent Chas. M. Howland has set the mark pretty high, but he believes it will be reached. Every regular attendant is working hard and it now looks, providing the weather is fair, that the crowd will be a large one. Evangelist Brooks will address the school previous to the study hour. Cards have been sent out and if the crowd does not come up to expectations tomorrow then the members will redouble their efforts in an aim to beat all city records on Sunday, January 24.

IN THE FIELD

Joseph McGhee makes the announcement that he will seek the Democratic nomination for attorney general.

He has been assistant attorney general for four years and has attained excellent repute for the industry and success with which he has devoted himself to his duties. He will make a popular candidate and will be especially strong in Southern Ohio, as he hails from Jackson county and the people of this section are intimately acquainted with him, through both his prominence and the active and influential part he has taken in district politics.

THE SIGNS MULTIPLY.

This week saw not only a vast betterment of the industrial situation in Portsmouth, but the whole country bounded to a growing spirit of optimism.

In the great financial centers money was easier, confidence took on new aspects and there was [illegible] in most lines of trade.

What apprehension of the future there was arose [illegible] of the conditions in foreign countries. There is serious labor disturbance in Africa, the Balkan situation is giving concern and the principal commercial nations seem to have entered upon [illegible]. Yet, so improved was the outlook on this side that little was [illegible] of the effect more remote conditions were to have on American industry and commerce.

NOW ALL TOGETHER

The [illegible] strike, which caused such a depression in our progress and activity generally, being now happily at an end, let all the ill feeling engendered by it be forgot and held for naught, as once more we gather in the common purpose of making Portsmouth the busiest place on the map and, everything considered, the most desirable place to live.

Thousands have made their abiding place here and found it pleasant because the town was more free from those clashes and conditions that tend to divide communities. Nothing must be suffered to enter evilly disturbing the ordinary [illegible] intercourse and general affairs. Unquestionably Portsmouth [illegible] upon the threshold of her greatness. There [illegible] of any happening or situation that will put altogether end to her development, but her progress can be slackened and to a degree marred by both overt and violent differences. To prevent this we must sustain our pride of place, meet it [illegible] of tolerance and good fellowship that has [illegible] the outside world and wall in united and concerted [illegible] to the common good and betterment, realizing that as a [illegible] at peace, so are all in it [illegible].

THE RIGHT RIVALRY.

[illegible] will demonstrate itself in [illegible] no matter what obstacles it has to overcome in so doing [illegible] matter of good roads for Scioto county to prove it.

Three or four years ago when the county [illegible] arranged to lay a vitrous paving along Chillicothe [illegible] with violent opposition, which [illegible] laying of a second mile. However, when [illegible] completed and the advantage of [illegible] made evident [illegible] took the place [illegible] missioners are now somewhat [illegible] Sciotoville isn't satisfied with [illegible] asks for two more. While [illegible] pikers are urging the paving [illegible] across the West Side and declaring [illegible] of road improvement insists it [illegible] ing.

May be the latter has the [illegible] but it is fortunate that the county [illegible] command to well satisfy all [illegible] them to a [illegible] reasonable share [illegible] of the [illegible] this is the plan they [illegible] out systematically in a few years [illegible] dozen trunk pikes that are [illegible].

Columbus, Jan. 17. Between $1,050,000 and $2,150,000 will make their way into the coffers of the state if the supreme court holds that companies which lease their railroad property to holding companies are liable for the Willis tax of three-twentieths of one per cent of their capital stock. The court is asked to pass upon this question in an appeal filed by the state from a decision of the Cuyahoga county court of appeals holding that the state cannot collect Willis law taxes amounting to $55,000 from the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad whose property is under lease by the Pennsylvania company. The decision will determine the scope of the act. If the state wins large sums will be collected from other railroads. The tax is one annually.

The Ohio Institute for Public Efficiency, which is to have headquarters at Columbus, has been organized by business and professional men of Columbus, Cleveland, Canton, Akron and Elyria. Rufus E. Miles, director of the Cincinnati municipal research bureau, will be the head of the institute. He will be known as the executive officer. The new organization is to be at the service of the state and cities in making surveys of departments of government with the idea of recommending efficiency and economy.

But one word should be changed in amending the Warnes automobile license law, the status of which is now the subject of controversy in the courts, according to Representative Warnes of Holmes county, its author. It now provides that one-third of its receipts shall go into the road fund. Warnes would strike out "one-third" and insert "all," thus turning over all of the income of the statute to the cause of good roads. It is hard to understand how this one change would cure the alleged defect which the Franklin county court held made the law unconstitutional, which was that the state is without power to impose a graduated tax on automobiles. Warnes said the amendment would be offered soon after the session opened.

Republican organization leaders here are perceptibly worried over the uncertainty that is characterizing the attitude of Former United States Senator J. B. Foraker. They say they feel certain he will vie with Senator Theodore E. Burton for the senatorial nomination this year and still he is [illegible] them by withholding any [illegible] announcement of his intentions. Meantime the Foraker adherents insist that there is a real [illegible] boom for the former senator in progress of the making. To the observer at the capital it looks as if Foraker already is a candidate. Much press matter is being over the state in his behalf and some of his friends are authority for the statement that he will soon have an organized campaign bureau running full blast. Intimates of the Foraker political household say that the former senator is keenly hopeful of the situation and believes he can defeat Senator Burton at the primary. At the present moment it looks like a fight between these two only for the Republican senatorian nomination. Word from Foraker's home city, Cincinnati, is that if he does enter the fight in earnest, he will make a whirlwind campaign from one of the state to the other. Friends of Senator Burton insist that he will have the support of the Republican organizations in the primary fight, if there is to be any. He was promised this support, in fact, during his meeting here with the state central committee, it is reported. When the Republicans gather here for their get-together banquet and conference on February 26, Senator Burton is almost certain to be on hand. It is doubtful, on the other hand, if Former Senator Foraker will be one of the guests for he has been rather satirical about the amalgamation efforts on the part of Republican leaders and doesn't look kindly upon the peace negotiations.

Federal League Is Up In The Air

Chicago, Jan. 17. Chicago will not be in the Federal league, and this means that there will be no Federal league when that meeting is over tonight.

This was the announcement made by a major league magnate this afternoon. The magnate refused to let his name be made public, but repeatedly declared his information was authentic. It was generally conceded that the fate of the Federal league hung in the balance depending on whether Chicago and St. Louis entered.

Read This And Get Wise to Shoe Styles

Even the styles in men's footwear for next fall are running to those with an English flavor as English bluchers with long receding toes and low heels will be predominant in many of the best lines made in America.

This fact soon became patent at the semi-annual shoe congress of the Excelsior Shoe Company, which ended Saturday. Tans will lose none of their popularity and small eyelets will be smart in the better grades of shoes. Russet tan that takes a shine so lustrously will come into its own again and will be shown in great numbers. Many will have the low, flat heel and the tapering receding toe that can be worn by those who have a slender foot.

The Excelsior line next fall will be one of the best medium price lines on the market, the sample-building period just closed giving concrete evidence of this. There will be 25 $3.25 shoes in this factory's line for 1914.

MANY WANT TO DANCE

So much interest is being taken in the new dances that it is expected a record class will be on hand when Prof. Fisher's last regular class for the year will meet Monday evening at 8:30. The New York One Step will be featured that evening.

On Tuesday evening one of the largest dancing classes ever known in the city, the Tango class will meet. In addition to these Prof. Fisher is giving instruction to numerous small private classes.

Masses Earlier

The first mass at the St. Mary's church Sunday morning will be celebrated at 7:30 and the second at 9 o'clock (Standard time). No other services will be held on account of the jubilee services in the Holy Redeemer church Sunday.

Foresters Install

St. Joseph Court No. 1221 Catholic Order of Foresters conducted one of the most successful meetings Friday night when it installed officers and was honored by the visit of Fathers J. E. McGuirk, Cleary and Goebel. The latter is spiritual advisor of the order. Father Cleary delivered an excellent address, which the Foresters appreciated very much. An unusually large attendance characterized the meeting.

Deputy High Chief Ranger John Vogt conducted the installation. The officers are:

August Dole, chief ranger; George Lauder, vice chief ranger; Aloysius Melcher, recording secretary; William Frische, financial secretary; Samuel Burk, treasurer; Harry Steahley, speaker.

An innovation for the coming year is the question box to be presided over by Harry Steahley, speaker.

The Columbia tonight offers a special picture in two reels, "The Great Game," this is a very interesting and well acted picture filled with exciting events. The Joy Of Coming Motherhood

A Wonderful Remedy That is a Natural Aid and Relieves the Tension.

Mother's Friend, a famous external remedy, is the only one known that is able to reach all the different parts involved. It is a penetrating application after the formula of a noted family doctor, and lubricates every muscle, nerve, tissue or tendon affected. It goes directly to the strained portions and gently but surely relieves all tendency to soreness or strain.

By its daily use there will be no pain, no distress, no nausea, no danger of laceration or other accident, and the period will become of supreme comfort and joyful anticipation.

To all young women Mother's Friend is one of the greatest of all helpful influences, for it robs childbirth of all its agonies and dangers, dispels all the doubt and dread, all sense of fear, and thus enables the mind and body to await the greatest event in a woman's life with untrammeled gladness.

Mother's Friend is a most cherished remedy in thousands of homes, and is of such peculiar merit and value as to make it essentially one to be recommended by all women.

You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle, or the druggist will gladly get it for you if he has none in. Mother's Friend is prepared only by the Bradfield Regulator Co., 137 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who will send you by mail, sealed, a very instructive book to expectant mothers. Write for it today.

CITY SHORT OF MONEY

Appropriations for the various municipal departments and funds through which the finances of the city are handled were pruned by city council, the board of control and departmental officials at a caucus held Friday night. Wherever an opportunity afforded the budget was whittled in order to keep within the radius of the finances at hand.

An appropriation asked by the board of health will likely be subjected to a little alum. It is entirely out of proportions to the funds at hand and the solicitor will confer with the members of the board in an effort to induce them to retrench.

LAY DOWN LAW TO ASSESSORS

Columbus, O. Jan. 17—District assessors are not to engage in other lines of work while they are assessing property. So decreed the state tax commission yesterday, after receiving information from several counties that assessors in the past have plied their trade at selling fruit trees, fertilizers and farming implements while assessing property.

In some instances, it is said, favoritism was shown the farmer who made purchases from the assessors.

Croup and Cough Remedy

Croup is a terrible disease. It attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklin, & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. adv.

Don't Miss Hearing Mrs. Booth Tuesday

One of the big features of the Bigelow Lecture Course will be Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, one of the most noted women in America. She comes Tuesday night and should be heard by all who are interested in the betterment of the human race.

She is entertaining and gives you a new viewpoint on many subjects in which you should be interested.

MAUD BALLINGTON BOOTH.

Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth, often referred to as the "Little Mother" of the prisons, is one of the best known women in America today. She is also one of the most interesting and effective speakers on the American platform. She is carrying a great message to thousands of people in her audiences annually. A recent article said of her that she is probably the most beloved woman in the land and certainly is the most attractive of all women speakers. The article further says, "She has fire and magnetism, gifts of the highest oratorical order, sustained and animated by deep conviction, high purpose and burning earnestness."

Mrs. Booth commands the highest price ever paid a woman lecturer in this country, and the money thus earned goes to support her homes for paroled and discharged prisoners which she calls "Hope Halls." This is her only reason for coming before the public, and the public has been most willing to hear her and help her cause.

ENTERTAINMENT

On Monday, the 19th, at 7 p. m. the young ladies of Class No. 11 of the Hutchins Street Baptist Sunday School will give an entertainment and social in the church, Hutchins and Twelfth streets. An interesting program will be rendered after which pie and coffee will be served in the basement. No admission will be charged.

LICENSE RULING MADE SATURDAY BY STATE BOARD

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—In a precedent making ruling the state liquor license commission this afternoon ruled that pleasure clubs and associations of any character cannot serve liquor at their functions, even though a licensed saloonist is employed to handle the liquor. The commission refused to allow the Moose lodge and Cincinnati Automobile Club under these conditions to serve liquor at a ball and exhibition planned by them in the near future.

In another ruling the state liquor license commissioners decided that an increase in the city's population whether by immigration or otherwise, will not permit the granting of more licenses in the territory. County licenses must await until the beginning of the new license year for the taking of a new census.

WIL NOT PROBE.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Democrats of the house rules committee today decided against ordering congressional investigation of strikers in the Michigan copper fields and the Colorado coal districts.
